

White Oaks aid pours in as campaign snowballs

"Over $5,600 has been pledged since Saturday and it's still going strong!" Barbara Cook, co-producer of White Oaks Theatre told The Outlook Tuesday. "Another $100 has come in this morning and it's only 10 o'clock," she added.

Spurred on by enthusiastic citizens who had pledged money as well as support, the Board of Directors has decided to hold off until Jan. 15 for a final decision on what to do.

The board had announced last week that because of the tremendous deficit and the lack of support in their fund raising project, the theatre was not eligible for the federal and foundation grants which they had hoped to obtain. Therefore, White Oaks would have to cease its operation and put the property up for sale.

The drive to save White Oaks began Saturday morning when Supervisor Tom Hudson and Hal Hallett formed a committee which they initially called the $50 Club. They announced they were going to contribute $50 apiece to get it going. The idea caught fire and pledges ranging from $5 to $100 started pouring in. Many persons stated that they would have helped before but thought their small contributions would not be of sufficient size to help. City officials of Seaside, Monterey, Pacific Grove and Carmel joined in lending their support to the Valley training theatre.

Radio station KIDD carried the story of the campaign and kept listeners informed of the mounting dollars which accumulated over the weekend.

On Sunday, the White Oaks office looked like a "bookie joint," with three or four phones ringing constantly. Valleyite Barbara Blevens who was helping take pledges said, "I'm so excited. I've taken phone calls for $300 in the last two hours."

So, at the time The Outlook went to press, White Oaks Theatre was definitely still alive and kicking!

Joan doesn't dig Al Capp

Before leaving for her singing engagement in Japan, Valley folksinger Joan Baez consulted with Francis Heisler, her attorney, presumably on the matter of a possible suit against cartoonist Al Capp. The Outlook learned yesterday. Heisler was out of town, in court in San Francisco, and could not be reached for a statement.

Associated Press carried a story, released in Honolulu where Joan stopped over en route to Japan, which quoted her as saying she believes the character of "Joanie Phoebe," currently a feature of the Li'l Abner cartoon strip, is a caricature of herself.

In speaking of the satire, Joan was quoted as saying, "It is vulgar and stupid." She added that she doesn't mind being spoofed, but she resents Capp's taking "a jab at the whole protest movement." (The comic strip character, Joanie Phoebe, is a folksinger, with long blond hair, who sings protest songs on college campuses at the rate of $10,000 a concert).

Valley friends wish Happy 86th Birthday to Joe

That grand old man of Carmel Valley, Joe Hitchcock, has done it again...he has pulled off another birthday without looking one whit older.

Nineteen friends gathered in the rear dining room of the Cottage Inn to join in the annual celebration marking Joe's 86th birthday.

In addition to appropriate toasts of grog, Joe was also treated to a violin solo of "Happy Birthday" played by his neighbor, Les Richerts.

Highlight of the luncheon came when Joe Ricupero presented Joe with a cuckoo clock with a twenty year guarantee, and the hope that Joe outlasts the clock.

Others who attended the luncheon were Elmer Uzzell, Bob Heaviside, Lou Gardner, Herb Brownell, Owen Dibbern, Larry Cummings, George Willis, George T.C. Smith, Tom Hefling, Robert Hoge, Homer Gruver, By Ford, Bill Allen, Doyt Early, Ed Marcucci and Clancy Van Horn.

New chamber officers retained in re-run election meeting

Election of new officers for Carmel Valley Chamber of Commerce has been completed according to the new by-laws, Tom Hefling, retiring president, announced.

New officers are as previously chosen: Pres. Ken Van Hagen, 1st Vice Pres. Don McKenzie, 2nd Vice Pres. Richard Brinton and Treas. Hefling.

Nominations and election were re-run when questions were raised that the initial nominations and election were not in compliance with the new by-laws.

Annual banquet and presentation of "Good Egg" awards will be the evening of Jan. 28 at Carmel Valley Golf and Country Club.

New headquarters for the Chamber is at the CV General Store. Mrs. Jack Black has been appointed by Pres. Van Hagen as the new executive secretary, succeeding Lori Swiss.

Casa Carmela to open Wed.

The Valley's newest restaurant, Lou's Casa Carmela, hopes to open next Wednesday, Jan. 18, according to manager Tom Bottaro. As plans now stand, this is the big day, unless something unforeseen occurs.

The restaurant and bar will be open from 5 p.m. to midnight with dinner served from 6 to 11 p.m.

Carmel Rancho hit

Thieves strip businesses in weekend burglary

An efficient and well organized team of burglars literally cleaned out the House of Lyn women's apparel shop in Carmel Rancho Shopping Center over the weekend. All that remained of a stock valued at approximately $13,000 was one lone dress. Even the racks were taken. Entry apparently was made with a crow bar sometime Saturday night or early Sunday morning. Owner Irene Stutzman immediately left for San Francisco to attempt to replenish her stock and was not available for comment.

Carmel Rancho Liquors was also the victim of the same burglars. Arrogant thieves used the liquor store's own dolly to trundle out some 30 to 35 cases of liquor. According to owner

Clarence Olivera, they concentrated on the most expensive brands, both in cases and from the shelf stock, amounting to a loss of about $4,200.

"This was really a gang of pros," he commented. Entry to his store was also made by prying the door with a crow bar.

The burglary was discovered sometime around 4:30 a.m. Sunday when newspapers were delivered to the store.

Although the shopping center office was also entered the only article taken was a transistor radio.

THEME FOR the annual Heart Fund cocktail party is "Grand Prix Culinaire-Cucina Italiana" and it will again be held at the CV Golf and Country Club on Feb. 5. Plans were finalized at a recent meeting attended by committee chairmen. Among those present were (left to right) Mrs. Robert Stanton, chairman of the hors d'oeuvres judging, Dr. Mast Wolfson,

A.G. Michaud, Heart Fund campaign manager, and Mrs. Roma Philbrook, secretary of the benefit.

Hors d'oeuvres and cocktails to reign at Heart Fund benefit

Glamorous plans are under way for the Heart Fund cocktail party and hors d'oeuvres contest, "Grand Prix Culinaire" — Cucina Italiana, to be held this year at the Carmel Valley Golf and Country Club, Feb. 5 from 5:30 to 7 p.m.

Alfred G. Fry, general chairman, presided over a group of planners at the Pine Inn recently at which representatives of the tri-county Central Mission Trails Heart Assoc., members of the sponsoring group, which is the Monterey Peninsula Hotel Assoc., and local volunteers were present.

Dr. Chester T. Johns, president of C.M.T.H.A. came from Santa Cruz to attend. Also present was A.G. Michaud, president of Del Monte Properties, who is chapter campaign manager.

The party theme, as one can gather from its title, is to be Italian, with appropriate decor by Barbara Tripp, in the manner of "gran premio gastronomico."

Judges of the favorite hors d'oeuvres competition which tri-county cooks (Santa Cruz, San Benito, Monterey) may enter are Mrs. Robert Stanton of Carmel Valley, chairman, Bill Colman of Del Monte Lodge and Barbara Burdick.

Jack Dougherty will serve as coordinating chairman with Ed Haber of the Carmel Valley Golf and Country Club as host chairman, Mrs. Roma Philbrook of Asilomar, secretary, and Jack McCubbin of Casa Munras, treasurer.

Other committee workers have been named as follows: Tickets — William Hubbard of Del Mesa Carmel and Betty Carr, Lobos Lodge; Publicity — Al Railton and Randy Ward of Bay Rapid Transit; Prizes and Medals — Bud Allen of Pine Inn and Ed McPhee of Mason Bros.; Music — Bernie McMena-min of San Carlos Hotel; Raffle — Kathleen Wood, Robles del Rio Lodge; Bars — Graham MacKenzie, Mark Thomas Inn, and Bill Godwin, Walston & Co.; Signs — Paul Reed, Highlands Inn.

Donations are $7.50 per person and tickets are available at any hotel on the Peninsula. All proceeds will benefit the Heart Assoc. fund.

Middle School - Mission split

Carmel Middle School and Mission School split two basketball games played Saturday at the Middle School.

The Mission squad downed the Middle School 7th graders 25-19, while the Middle School 8th graders won 41-29.

Return games are scheduled this afternoon, Wednesday, at the Mission School.

The Middle School will meet Pacific Grove there this coming Saturday morning.

The Middle School is preparing to enter the Monterey League play within the next two weeks, Coach Ralph Blumenthal announced.

A tourney for Tulare, Middle School and Pacific Grove teams of 5th and 6th graders is scheduled Saturday at the Middle School.

Middle School 5th and 6th grade teams won over Mission School cagers last week; the B squad scored a 17-5 victory and the A's 22-11. Middle School Coach Roland Schut complimented Jim Mallette, Ted Buck and John O'Shea for leading the A-team attack.

In last Saturday's contest with Mission, Middle School's Jim Conlan was high scorer with 12 points. Kevin Cunningham was next with 10 and Hans Smith and Ricky Hall next with 8 each. Also looking good was Jim De-

Outlook SPORTS

Ameral, who performed nicely under the boards.

For the Middle School 7th grade squad, Ted Hall was high-point man with 8 points. Next came Terry Seeders with 5 and David Briscoe with 4. Also cited for skillful ball handling were Tony Marsh and Bobby Conlan.

Coach Blumenthal praised his assistant, Jack DeWitt, for playing an important part in sharpening up the Middle School upper-division squads. DeWitt is a former Carmel High star and MPC All-conference cager, now assisting Blumenthal on the after-school athletic program.

Spyglass Hill OK'd for Crosby tourney

Spyglass Hill has been accepted for play in the 1967 Bing Crosby National Pro-Am Golf Championship.

The new course will replace the Monterey Peninsula Country Club golf course in the annual charity event.

Local keglers in close tilts

The Stirrup Cup bowling team members felt like toasting their skill after last week's match at Cypress Bowl against the No. 1 team, Salinas Plating.

Of course, they lost—"but we sure gave them a bad time and had them sweating," according to Sam Boardman.

Ba Maling racked up a 603 series and high game of 222 for the Valley team. Close behind were Chuck Olmsted with a 507 series and high game of 213, and Sam Boardman with a 522 series and 182 top game.

CVYO films need support

EDITOR: In my three years of preparing and running the Saturday movies at the Community Center, I've never had to write for help! But the time has come, unfortunately—a BIG unfortunately! We've got to have everyone's help if we are to continue.

Before delving into the actual problems, it should be reviewed just what the movies are. Every Saturday the Carmel Valley Youth Organization presents two showings of a superior family-type motion picture.

SUPERIOR is the word which should be emphasized. These films are entertaining, usually full-color, late release, major produced films. They are not only recommended for showings to all ages by Parents' Magazine and the National Legion of Decency—but in most cases given special recognition by these organizations—and more!

There are two convenient showings at both 1 and 3 p.m., every Saturday. The minimal "all seats" charge is only 35¢. There is a spacious snack-bar with a wide selection of wholesome and reasonable foods.

However, many parents like the movies especially because of the adult supervision which enables individual attention to be given out... something which is unavailable at any other movie. In fact, I'd like to know any place which guarantees to show only approved motion pictures of the high calibre which we show; and with two convenient shows.

And now on to the problems. It seems that over the past few months the CVYO has been showing these movies for such a few children that in most cases the cost of the film rentals are more than is taken in. This is a continual drain on the youth group's funds and it can't be kept up much longer without some revisions or a drop of the movies.

I especially don't want to cancel the movies for the rest of the school year; for I have obtained the absolute finest in films available anywhere including a special series of live-action fables on the first Saturday of every month, these will especially appeal to the youngest of our audiences. We even have an action packed serial with an episode every Saturday.

We will have our movies well advertised as in the past at the post office, in front of the Community Center and Village Market, and at Tularcitos School, as well as in The Outlook. Please support us—the youths of the Valley will help put them on—only if you send your children.

Cordially,
Kit Parker

White Oaks

EDITOR: The news of the closing of the Valley's White Oaks Theatre is very, very sad indeed.

I have a proposition to make to 199 interested persons: to wit: The theatre, I am told, needs $20,000.00 in order to qualify for a grant of $35,000 from an interested Foundation. My proposition to the 199 interested persons is this: I will pledge a cash donation of $100.00 as a beginning. If 199 others follow me in this the theatre will then have the needed $20,000.00.

Perhaps The Outlook would be willing to help out with a list of the names of the interested donors. Anyone wishing to remain anonymous could of course specify that wish...

Walter J. Roth
Carmel, Calif.

EDITOR: My name is Karen Kondan and I am an actress and speech teacher. I was associated with White Oaks Theatre as an actress in the summer of 1963 and as a scholarship student (actress-speech teacher) in 1965 through 1966. I rejoined this Theatre in 1965 after having completed a year's classical training at the London Academy of Music and Dramatic Arts. (I was fortunate to receive a fellowship granted to four women in the English speaking world.)

I really believe that White Oaks has a very special, unique and exciting place in theatre. Here the actor has the chance to grow as much as he is willing to work in his studies, combined with his participation in a "professional-type" working atmosphere; and I speak mainly as one of many actors who have rarely known an opportunity to be able to put into practice immediately that which one has just discovered, at a Theatre created for just this purpose.

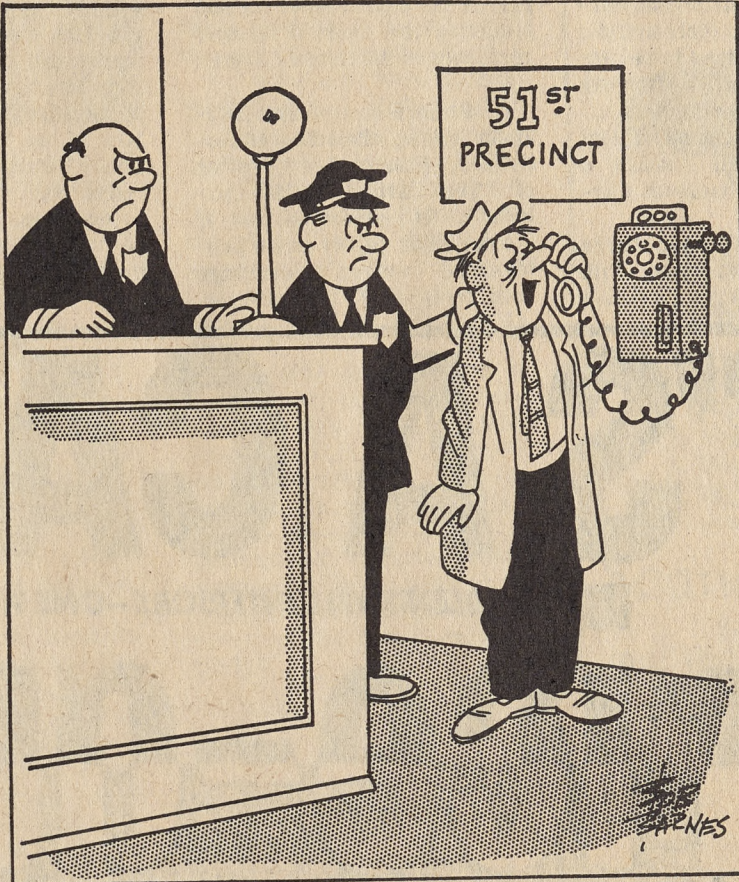

But most of all, I believe White Oaks could be that stepping-stone between educational and professional theatre, which at present is a total gulf of "nothingness." A young person, who wishes to learn, must at present beat his head against a professional world that has no time or patience for the beginner, no matter what his potential. A New York only opens itself to those ripened and ready. And true, there are too many with no training, no experience, who wish to work. And a professional director has no time to be a teacher. So, where does this perpetual cycle end? Hopefully in a place like White Oaks. A Theatre that can nurture and protect that gullible and innocent talent until it has the strength to know its own face and protect itself in a difficult and unnerving profession.

CARMEL VALLEY OUTLOOK

"Happy anniversary, pet..."

SCHOOL NEWS

Orville Rogers, principal of Middle School, brings Outlook readers up to date on what has happened since his last report.

It's hard to believe that we are in January with only four weeks before the end of the first semester. With the semester break coming on Feb. 3, second quarter grades will come out the week following. We are making every effort to avoid mistakes in spelling, addresses and schedules made on our report cards processed through IBM. Our type of schedule with students moving frequently from teacher to teacher makes it difficult for IBM to keep up with us. We feel, however, that the great saving in teacher time in marking cards through IBM is worth the effort.

If you didn't see the Middle School Honor Roll (published by The Outlook) we have extra copies and one is posted on our outside bulletin board. Some interesting things came out of this first honor roll. No student achieved highest honors (straights A's) in any grade but the closest to it was a fifth grader, Allison Faul with a 3.88 grade average. Incidentally, the G.P.A. on the report card stands for grade point average with a straight "A" G.P.A. counting as 4.00, a "B" as 3.00 and so on down. The class with the highest percentage getting honors was sixth grade with 36% of the class as compared to 21% (5th), 21% (7th) and 24% (8th). We are proud of this sixth grade as it is the class that was the initial fifth grade class last year. Remember the concern about what might happen to those poor little fifth graders in the same school with 8th graders and a departmentalized schedule?

Santa Claus did not forget the Middle School Parent-Faculty Club. Santa Claus in this case was Dr. and Mrs. V.J. Marasco who mailed us a check for $50.00 to help us with library books. Rest assured this was a welcome gift!

Speaking of the Parent-Faculty Club, the next meeting will be Jan. 24 at 8 p.m. in the Stuart Mitchell Library. This meeting will feature the Middle School social science department who will outline the program for you.

The first stage of our drive to pass an override (March 7) is on full-blast. Many of you will be called to serve, or have been called already. Don't hesitate to call us at school if you have any questions about our needs or what you hear regarding the override. Those of you who aren't registered, please remember that Jan. 12 is the deadline to register and if you have any doubts about where to register, call us.

If your house is like mine you have probably complained many times about children never listening. If so, then this quote from Sydney Harris' column in the Dec. 21 issue of The Monterey Peninsula Herald is very pertinent:

"There are hundreds of jokes about 'the questions children ask,' but such questions are models of logic, directness and realism compared with the questions parents ask, every day and night, with depressing regularity.

"Why didn't you wash your hands?" "How do you expect to pass if you don't study?" "Do you think you'll be strong enough to play football if you don't drink your milk?" "Why are you so mean to your little sister?" "Can't you talk without shouting?" "Didn't I tell you to empty the trash?" "Have you spent all your allowance already?" Etc.

"When parents sigh that the child 'never listens,' maybe it's because the child has been listening to so many idiotic questions for so many years that they now come through like radio static."

Editorial

When faced with reality

When the actual demise of White Oaks Theatre appeared to be a reality, suddenly a great many people realized what a loss this would be. Human nature is such that most of us take the things we have pretty much for granted... until we are faced with the loss of them.

We, as our readers must know, feel that this Carmel Valley Theatre has grown up and matured greatly during the past eight years. What a tragedy to have it lose out when achievement of its goals seemed so close.

Therefore, we hope the big swing to "Save White Oaks" continues. Supervisor Tom Hudson and Al Hallett of Herald printers started the push and were quickly followed by other residents of the Monterey Peninsula. In a thirty hour period over last weekend, over four thousand dollars poured in... mostly from people who gave from five to fifty dollars.

We hope they make it!

In Short

YES, THAT was former Valleyite, Ron Mitchell, in "The Man from Uncle" program last Friday. Ron and his wife, Mary Pattie, left the Valley and White Oaks Theatre not long ago for the theatrical world of Southern California. We got word from Ron that he had the TV part and would be on this month... if he didn't hit the cutting room floor first. All went well, because there he was... standing up shaking his fist and shouting at the local town fathers.

MRS. HENRY (JO) PERRY has shown that lots of experience is not the only prerequisite to success. Jo, who is associated with the Verga Real Estate office in Monterey, was named Saleswoman of the Year at the annual dinner of the Monterey Peninsula Board of Realtors. Jo had never been in real estate until just a few years ago.

Prior to the holidays she and her husband had been visiting in the Bay area and she couldn't quite understand why he insisted on hurrying back to the Valley. That night they attended the Realtors dinner at the Carmel Valley Golf and Country Club and Jo found out why—when she was presented with the award.

PRINCIPAL Bill Mallek of Tularcitos School, is looking forward to a sabbatical next school year when he and his wife Phyllis will do graduate work at University of Oregon, Eugene. A ninth grade biology teacher in Seaside, she will work on her master's degree. Bill, who has his master's plans to take a varied smattering of courses. They will probably spend the summer at Coos Bay on the Oregon coast, where she will take a marine biology course offered by the University...

THE NUMBER of registered voters in Carmel School District is far above average. They number about 12,000, which suggests above-average interest in government. The fact was mentioned in connection with the school tax vote scheduled March 7. In the Carlsbad School District in Southern California, from where both Dr. Harris Taylor, Carmel district superintendent, and Business Manager Walter Hinton came, the student population of 3,200 students was about the same as here, but registered voters were only 4,800, considerably less than half of registration in the Carmel District...

OUR ERROR... We were so wishfully hoping that Carmel Valley would get in the Crosby Tournament scene that we read the fact into an announcement from the CV Golf and Country Club. We apologize to other Valleyites who may be making plans to attend the Crosby without leaving the Valley... but t'aint true. CV Golf and Country Club will be happy to serve you breakfast, lunch or dinner on the days of the Crosby... but they will not be hosting play. It's a good course... maybe that, too, will come!

News from Hacienda Carmel

The Activities Board of Hacienda Carmel, Mrs. Elizabeth Heath, chairman, met on Tuesday, Jan. 3 to plan and consider future events. During the meeting it was announced that Helen Oehler, aided by Donna Davis and Virginia Williams, will be in charge of art displays in Casa Central. Mrs. Oehler said paintings only will be used and that their coloring in relation to room decor will be considered second only to their artistic quality. All paintings to be hung in Casa Central will be the work of Hacienda Carmel residents.

It was also announced that Mrs. Oehler will conduct a class in art for Hacienda Carmel residents.

Helen Smith will be in charge of ceramics instruction, with special emphasis at the outset on enamel on copper.

An art show is being planned for April in Casa Fiesta. At present it is expected that awards will be limited to class ribbons with no cash awards contemplated.

A delightful one-man show of Helen Oehler's works is on display in Casa Fiesta as a part of the year-round program featuring the work of talented residents of Hacienda Carmel.

At the invitation of Mrs. Elizabeth Heath, chairman of Activities, Ginnie Drew, editor of "The Carmel Valley Outlook," will present on Feb. 9, a color slide report on her professional women's exchange visit to U.S.S.R. in late 1966.

The presentation will take place at 8 p.m. in Casa Fiesta. Approximately 50 slides, selected from more than 500 photos made during Mrs. Drew's tour, will be shown to the accompaniment of appropriate "on-the-scene" comments.

Those dining in the de Oro Room at Hacienda Carmel during the holidays were delighted with the gay decorations provided by the Decorating Committee and by the colorful aprons and novel menus provided by the Dining Room Committee. Mrs. Cloy Sutcliffe and Mrs. Dottie Ketman spent many hours "over the sewing machines" to make sure that color would be "the order of the day" in the dining room.

CVPOA to elect officers at Jan. 26 meeting

The nominating committee of the Carmel Valley Property Owners Association presented its slate of officers at the board meeting last Thursday. Election will be held at a general membership meeting, Jan. 26, which will be held at the Community Center.

Nominations may be made from the floor at that time. However, persons nominated must be present and willing to serve, or must have presented their acceptances in writing if they are unable to attend.

For president, the committee nominated C.L. Underwood of La Rancheria, curriculum director for the Monterey Peninsula Unified School District; for vice president, Roy Kaminke of W. Carmel Valley Rd.; for treasurer, John Briscoe of Country Club Dr.; and for secretary, Dr. Ben Dahle of Meadows Rd.

Nominated to the board of directors are Doyt Early, Panetta Rd.; Mrs. Paul Haberdorf, Boronda Rd.; Edwin Lee, Robinson Canyon Rd.; Mason Rhoades, Carmel Knolls Dr.;

Commission; chairman of the Monterey-Tainan Sister City Committee, and a national director of the Navy League of the U.S.

William Stowers, Country Club Dr.; Mrs. John Woolfenden, E. Carmel Valley Rd., SDUCV; James Miller, Aliso Rd., and Dr. Richard Kern and Rex Pryer, both of La Paloma.

Speakers for the membership meeting, which will begin at 8 p.m., are Loren Bunte, district director for the Monterey County Flood Control and Conservation District and A.K. Fuller, division manager of the Cal-American Water Co. Rex Pryer, CVPOA president, said he hopes to have additional speakers who will discuss the river and water problems of the Valley.

RECEIVING KIWANIS KUDOS is George Clemens, right, who was presented with the "Man of the Year Award" by Robert Sherry, president of the Monterey Club.

Kiwanians present George Clemens with MOY Citizenship Award

George Clemens, former mayor of Monterey and one of the owners and developers of the Carmel Valley Shopping Center, was presented last week with the Kiwanis "Man of the Year Citizenship Award" for 25 years of service to the community.

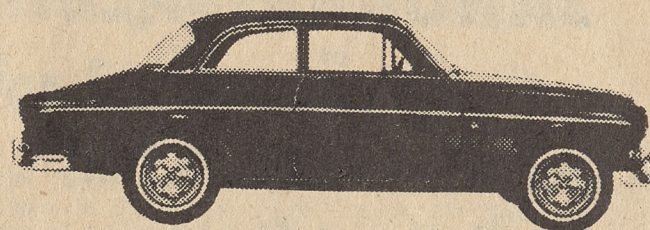

The presentation was made by Robert Sherry, Monterey Kiwanis president, who praised the leadership of Mr. Clemens. He was cited for, among other things, playing a prominent part in the building of the Monterey Marina, finalizing plans for the freeway through Monterey, for Del Monte Shopping Center, and securing approval from the federal government for building of the Custom House Tunnel Project.

Clemens was born in San Francisco and came to the Peninsula in 1912 at the age of five. During the war he was executive secretary of the Fish Cannery Assoc. and stayed with the industry for 10 years in labor relations, legislative work and public relations.

In the insurance business since 1951, Clemens is an active partner in Monterey Insurance Agencies. He was president of the Peninsula Chamber of Commerce in 1953-54 and was a member of the Airport Board for six years, resigning when he became mayor of Monterey. In all he served six years on the Monterey city council. He was also a Pacific Grove city councilman for two years in 1952-53.

He is presently a member of the Monterey County Juvenile

Katherine Stoney to wed Richard Schreiberman

Tradition dictates that gifts are opened Christmas morning at the Carmel home of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Stoney. However, granting their daughter, Katherine Anne, permission to open a tiny package which revealed a wedding and engagement ring resulted in the surprise announcement of her engagement to Lt. Richard Barry Schreiberman (USA). The romantic news was cause for double celebrating for the group invited to join the Stoney's for a Christmas Eve dinner party at Aldon's on Cannery Row. Also attending were the Stoney's son, Leland, and Richard's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Schreiberman, here from their home in New York City to spend the holidays with their son.

The young couple met through their mutual interest in the theater. Katherine, presently a sophomore at Monterey Peninsula College, is a drama major and an English minor. She has been active in local theater productions, among them: "Night of the Iguana," and "Lower Depths."

Richard, currently appearing in "Any Wednesday" at the Circle Theatre, is assigned to Combat Development Command Experimentation Command, Fort Ord, and Hunter Liggett Military Reservation. A graduate of Hofstra University, Long Island, N.Y., Richard has done plays off Broadway such as "Music Man." His pre-service training in motion picture production in New York is the field in which he plans to continue upon completion of his Army duty in 1968. A wedding in Carmel is planned for that year.

Mrs. William H. Havenar is

Carmel Business Association gains permanent phone

Carmel Business Association now has its own permanent telephone number—624-2522—thanks to the generous offer of Isobel Tostevin, public accountant and past president of the Association.

She has permitted the Association to install a phone extension in her office, which can be opened by means of a switch in the home of Sec. Kaye Scott, giving coverage Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Robert Spencer has accepted the appointment as the Association representative on a committee representing various segments of the community to study and act on Carmel's sparking problem. Councilman William Sefton, at the request of Mayor Steve Grant, chairmans the committee.

Outgoing president Mel Campbell announced this final wish: "In 1967 may the members show more interest by occasionally attending the monthly meetings of the Executive Committee, not just when they have something on their minds, but to find out what's going on, and may the attendance at the business meetings be as good as it was at the Christmas meeting."

Reviewing the past year, it was announced that 13,462 brochures were distributed, plus the hotel, motel and restaurant lists and the general information sheets. Requests for the brochure came from as far away as the U.S. Embassy in London, from Switzerland, Costa Rica, Mexico, Vietnam, Germany, Holland and Los Angeles.

"An amazing amount of inquiries and requests" that couldn't be covered by printed material were answered by letter.

The parking survey was completed and coordinated with those made by the police department and planning commission as a basis for study of the new Parking Committee.

"Satisfactory settlement for all concerned of differences arising between visitors and business people of Carmel, both members and non-members"

New gallery in Carmel for Big Sur art, crafts

One of the newest galleries to open in Carmel is tucked away on the second floor of the Vandervoort Court on San Carlos St., but many people have already found it. Called "Creative Crafts of Big Sur," the gallery serves as a salesroom and exhibit spot for about a dozen artists and craftsmen who live in the Big Sur area.

The gallery has been the dream of Susan Santos who had been associated with another one in Mexico before coming to the Peninsula. She has artworks in her tiny shop that range from the stoneware of Karl Lee to the leather work of Sylvia Rudolph and the original clothing designs of Jean-gy, Dawn and Jean Colon.

Other Big Sur artists whose work is being handled by Susan are John Horler who produces batiks with a stained glass window effect; Irene Love, an artist in oils; Peter Monk, a sculptor; Daryl, who makes fruits, bowls, plates, animals and jewelry from papier mache; Lance Avant who specializes in miniatures, and Barbara Johnson and Angeli Jiminez who design fascinating jewelry. A number of paintings by Amelia Newell are also shown.

Several Valley and Carmel people have come in on the new gallery even though it is primarily a showcase for Big Sur art. Harry Conley has several of his unusual batiks on display along with the collages and paintings of Jay Chaffin.

The current exhibit at the Lester Kierstead Henderson gallery in Monterey is a double one, honoring Peninsula watercolor artist Donald Teague and Martha Mood, a creator of ap-

Gourmet menu planned for Art Museum dinner

The annual dinner of the Monterey Peninsula Museum of Art Association will be held on Wednesday, Jan. 25, at Fisherman's Grotto on Fisherman's Wharf.

This year's dinner is planned as a gourmet experience, with Chef Sabu Shake preparing his famous bouillabaisse. Due to the richness of the dish the Museum is not planning a pre-dinner cocktail hour so those who wish to should make their own arrangements.

Dinner time is 7:30 and reservations are $3.25 per person, with an extra charge for carafes of wine.

Reservations may be made by calling the Museum in Carmel at 624-2918.

pliqued tapestries.

The two were introduced and feted at a champagne party at the gallery on last Thursday night.

Martha Mood, who was recently chosen "Artist of the Year," by the Southwestern Art League, is now living in Helotes, Tex., where she is devoting her whole time to producing the stitcheries... Five of her religious tapestries are now hanging in Trinity College in San Antonio and 150 more of her pieces will be shown at Witte Museum in May.

Donald Teague is well known to Peninsulans. His inspirations have come from many parts of the world, but for the past few years, he has concentrated on capturing the color and feeling of Andalusia and Cordova in his watercolors.

Among his many honors, he is the only artist to win the Gold Medal of the American Water Color Society two times.

Although the Henderson Gallery also maintains an exhibit of works by both Mrs. Mood and Mr. Teague, a number of special ones will be here only through this weekend.

'Alfie' builds his nest with a variety of birds

By DONALD MINOR

It is not a little sad to be reviewing a motion picture so soon after the demise of legitimate theater in the Valley. It is also ironic, since the film, "Alfie," has achieved the kind of monetary success that Miss Church's valiant enterprise so deeply deserved but did not receive.

The truth is, the general public never deserves theaters like the White Oaks. On the other hand, it does deserve "Alfie," for this latest propellant of the popularity of Mr. Michael Caine contains that mixture of sex, comedy and melodramatic hokum which this public has repeatedly made clear it regards as an ideal entertainment cocktail.

The sex and comedy ingredients are laced, with bawdy British know-how, into a picturesque account of a Cockney Casanova's affairs with various "birds" what tike 'is fancy. These range the field: naive young girls who are a bother to get rid of, married women—"Make a married bird laugh, and you're half way there."—and a worldly American dame (played to a blowsy perfection by Shelley Winters) whom he happily calls a "lust-box" and from whom he gets his long-due comeuppance.

To enable Alfie to disclose the secrets of his amoral science, director Lewis Gilbert has his raffish hero address the audience at frequent intervals, such as in the middle of an embrace. This device serves Mr. Gilbert well in the production of sly and probing comedy, and it serves Mr. Caine well in the exploitation of his cool and heavy-lidded style.

I enjoyed all this cocky folderol, with its knowing comments on the man-woman foibles—that is, until the writers and the director decided to enrich their concoction with a heavily emotional episode involving an abortion performed, in Alfie's flat, on one of his married victims. Not that there is any objection, on either moral or dramaturgical grounds, to such serious matters in a comedy. Quite the contrary, comedy is inconsequential without them. What offends is that the film-makers switched styles in the middle of the steam. Instead of keeping Alfie a consistently callous rotter, they indulged themselves with giving him a thoroughly maudlin and unconvincing change of heart; and, instead of maintaining the momentum of perky, askant

Vocalists invited to audition for Opera Workshop

The Monterey Peninsula Opera Workshop, under the direction of Nancy Ness Bowman, with Camille Olaeta at the piano, resumed its rehearsals on Monday evening, Jan. 9 at 7:30 p.m. in the Music Room of the Carmel High School.

In addition to the opera Cavalleria Rusticana, the workshop now will include highlights from Carmen as well as selections from other operas, plus some non-operative music to suit various occasions.

The Opera Workshop makes no charge for its concert performances. Leaders and performers alike donate their services in an effort to bring to Peninsula audiences a selection of the better music available.

Auditions of prospective members of the opera workshop group may be arranged with Mrs. Bowman (624-1072.)

CARYN, who is 16 and a junior at Carmel High School, is a poet, playwright and folk singer, in her "spare time." Recently she discovered that she has almost enough credits to graduate, so she expects to go to summer school, so that she can complete high school a year ahead.

JEFF HILDRETH, one of Caryn's many friends who helped make art and craft items for her boutique, "Ah, Sunflower," concentrates on making godseyes. The shop name comes from a poem by William Blake.

CARYN entertained at the Carmel High variety show before Christmas vacation. Much of the jewelry for the boutique is made by Caryn who has also worked for a Peninsula store on their student fashion board. Her clothes, like her bedroom and her approach to life, are definitely "mod."

CARYN READS excerpts from a letter from a pen pal in England while the others work. She hopes to make enough money from her boutique...when it gets started...to help finance a trip to the British Isles after she graduates from Carmel High School.

If imagination, and 'Ah, Sunflower' v

Caryn Ecker is still hopeful of finding a place to locate her boutique. This may not seem an unusual problem, but Caryn is an enterprising student at Carmel High School who has assembled a group of other young people who are making all kinds of interesting art and craft things which she will handle in her boutique, provided she can find a place to hang her hat.

the original merchandise. But the city council decided that the second floor location was lacking in safety facilities, so she was not allowed to continue. Then she almost got a place near the Forest Hill area, out of the city limits . . . but it was rented just before she got there. So, she is still searching.

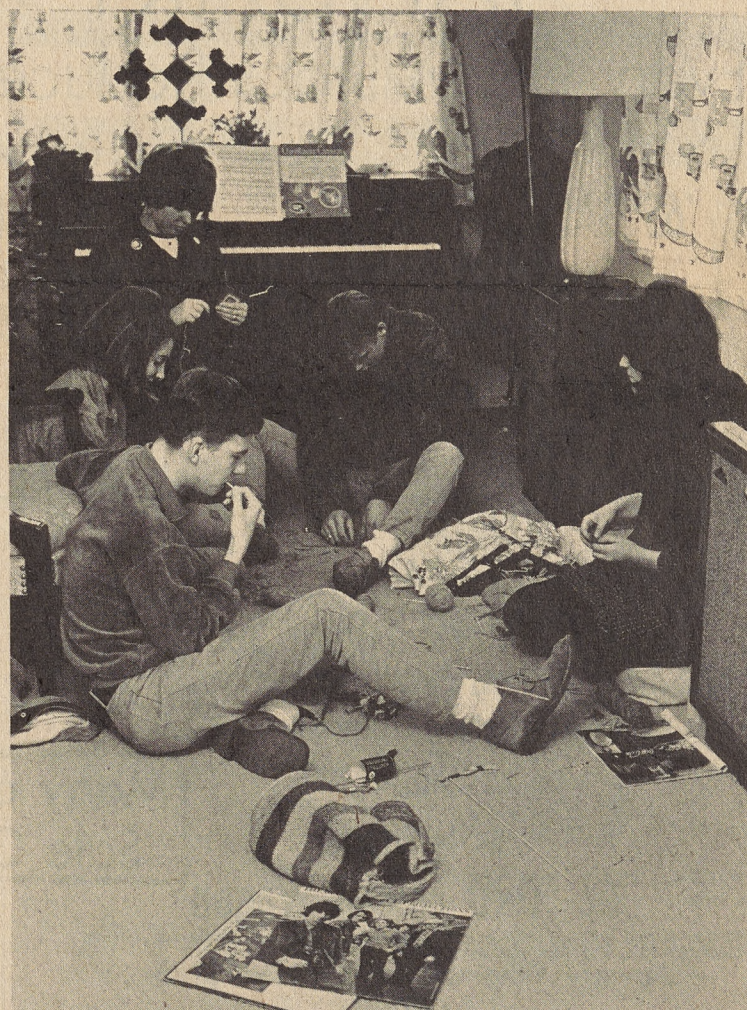

Several other places are available, but unfortunately they are not in the $35-$40 class of the first two. So, sadly relates Caryn, unless she can find a backer, or an inexpensive place to set up shop, her enterprise is doomed to failure.

Other young people have helped arrange and provide different types of arts for the boutique, which would operate on a commission basis. Jeff Hildreth, Coleen Cunningham, Gary Craig, Yoko Whitaker, Mark Dusken, Helen Napier, Jan Sherriff, Mary Lou Kier, Gary Harrington, Dennis Boling, and Dennis Moore have all helped paint or provide different types of arts for the boutique. In addition, Caryn has had the moral support and help of William Stone, Mrs. Ethel-lyne Ward, and Miss Diana Hardy, all teachers at Carmel High School.

Nancy McLeod, Jenny Waldo, Jarl Jensen, Karen Richter and Val Konard, friends from the Los Angeles area, are sewing dresses and making jewelry.

Among the variety of things which Caryn hopes to sell are ceramic pots and dishes, photographs, paintings and art posters, sandals, and collages. She also hopes to publish small volumes of original poetry and carry small books, magazines and possibly a few records . . . if she can find another spot for a purple door.

WORK SESSIONS get under way at Caryn's home on Meadows Place. Records provide the background as she and her friends make "ojos de Dios" (one of which is sitting on the piano in the background) out of brightly colored yarns. The Rhyming Philosopher

I'm sorry this Christmas you didn't get mink;
The way you're neglected, some people would think
My love has diminished. But, somehow, it's funny
No one ever hints that I've run out of money.

I know you've been hinting you'd like a Rolls-Royce,
Or just a Ferrari as second-best choice.
You didn't get either, because circumstances
Involved me in what might be called my finances.

The state of the market when money gets tight
Has never yet found me bewailing my plight.
But that's not the theme of this doctoral thesis
Which merely explains why I don't go to pieces.

So here's just a word to my friends and relations
Who occupy varying status and stations:
A man's disposition, though cheerful and sunny,
Is no indication he's rolling in money.

The grandchildren doubtless have wondered, at least,
Why grandfather's bounty has suddenly ceased.
Perhaps the old skinflint's forgotten to mention
He barely gets by on his niggardly pension!

Kiwanis Club holds first lunch meeting of '67

Joe Ricupero took up the gavel as new president of Carmel Valley Kiwanis Club at last week's meeting at Los Laureles Lodge.

He urged the club to launch more service and fund-raising projects during the coming year. He also emphasized the importance of building membership and improving attendance.

He read a letter of appreciation for the Kiwanis Club's $125 gift to Carmel Valley Youth Organization.

Dr. Ed Marcucci announced that he had tickets available for $10 for the four-day Crosby Tournament.

in the college administration building.

For potential full-time students, the registration system entails four steps: (1) application, which involves the filling out of certain forms and providing transcripts; (2) receipt of notice of admission; (3) an appointment with a counselor, who will assist in programming and give the student an appointment for (4) actual registration on either Jan. 31 or Feb. 1 between 8:30 a.m. and 1:30 p.m.

In addition, all entering students must take the college placement test on either Jan. 14 or 28, 8 a.m. to noon in the library lecture hall.

Persons planning to take only one or two classes during the day may make immediate counseling appointments through the counseling secretary in the administration building.

Schedules of classes are on sale at the college bookstore for 15 cents.

MPC's spring semester commences Feb. 6.

Evening students will register primarily by mail for spring semester courses at Monterey Peninsula College, MPC Evening Dean Keith Merrill announced.

Application blanks are contained in brochures listing 100 evening classes to be offered at MPC Feb. 6 to June 16. These must be returned by Jan. 20. Brochures have been mailed to evening students and are available to others at the college administration building.

THE FORD BLOCK
ACTION CENTER

Under the oaks and among the cacti

By Mildred Hattan

Neighbors living near the Hastings Reservation once again gathered for a pre-Christmas party with Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Bell hosting the event, which has been a tradition for many years. Occupying the center of attention was the pinata created by Betty Davis. A jolly Santa was the design chosen by Betty, filled with candies, nuts and small toys. Tables were laden with good things to eat which had been contributed by each family attending and included a Wassail Bowl and a cream puff tree.

It has also been the custom to make Christmas outfits for each of the children, to be donned and worn for the special holiday occasion. This year outfits were made by Lois Bell and Penny Tremper. The girls wore white naugahyde jumpers embroidered with their initials, white boots, and striped turtle-necked blouses. The boys wore white shirts, slacks, ties and white naugahyde vests also with initials. Photos of this year's handsome group were taken to be added to the pictorial record made during the years of children who have participated.

Families attending included

Dr. and Mrs. John Davis, Carol and Steven; Mr. and Mrs. Gary Tremper, Scout and Kathy; Mrs. Carolyn Fisher and Gaylen, her aunt, Mrs. Helena Voughton; Mrs. Mabel Cahoon and Gene, and Miss Carol Finley.

Enjoying the holiday excitement registered by three little granddaughters were Mr. and Mrs. Andrew F. Fitzgerald of 60 Laurel Dr. The Valley couple drove to their daughter's home in Hanford where they were greeted by Mr. and Mrs. James Parker, their four year old, Laurie, and three year old twins, Jeanelle and Mary Ann. A special guest was their son, Andrew Jr., who is stationed with the Navy in San Diego.

Enjoying a visit with their daughter, Barbara, are Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Wade of La Rancheria. Barbara has made her home for many years in Los Angeles.

and Mrs. Manuel Mancebo and children Manuel and Melody welcomed Mr. and Mrs. Albert Mancebo, Richard and Ronald, and Mr. and Mrs. John Mancebo, Sharon, Jeffrie, and Debbie, all of Dos Palos. Joining them were Mary's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Silva and her brother, Bill, all of the Valley.

Mrs. Irene Garner of Laurel Dr. found herself caught up in the holiday excitement of her teenage grandsons, Fred and John, and her granddaughter, Janet, now a seventh grader, when she arrived to spend Christmas with her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lavaroni of San Andreas.

She returned to the Valley in time to welcome home Daphne Meyers with whom she shares her home. Daphne had spent the holidays in Salt Lake City, Utah, with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Meyers, former Valley residents. Together Irene and Daphne said goodbyes to the third member of their household, Miss Betsy Ghodes, who is spending two weeks with her family in Raleigh, N.C.

A warm Valley welcome to new neighbors on El Caminito, Lt. Cmdr. and Mrs. David W. Casewell, who will be Valley residents during a two year assignment at the Naval Postgraduate School. The Casewells and their daughters, Sue 10, and Leslie 7, have just returned to the States after three years of duty in Rota, Spain.

A six pound two ounce daughter who arrived Dec. 18 at the Community Hospital made the Christmas of 1966 a very special one for Mr. and Mrs. James Enlow of Carmel Valley Rd. Little Regan Whitney joins a 22-month-old sister, Kimberly. Her great-aunt, Mrs. Wallace Pearson, arrived from her home in Seattle, Wash., to lend a hand with the new arrival and to spend the holidays with her niece and family.

Two very delighted sets of

CV Lions to host anniversary party

Spearheaded by Clyde Hitchcock, the Carmel Valley Lions will host a party celebrating the 50th year of Lions International at the Outrigger Restaurant on Jan. 14.

Close to 200 Lions and their wives and friends, from clubs on the Monterey Peninsula and the Salinas Valley, are expected to attend the affair. Guest speaker will be Lenny Bee, District Governor, from the Saratoga Lions Club.

Many members of the Carmel Valley Lions Club, which now numbers 46, will be sporting their new red blazers for the occasion.

gent, Miss Janet Thompsen, and Mrs. John Chapin.

A pre-Christmas attempt at a reunion of four friends became a comedy of errors, but climaxed in houseguests over the New Year's weekend for Mr. and Mrs. Larry Feldman of Aliso Rd. Notes on Christmas cards that read "Let's get together soon" sent Mr. and Mrs. Feldman and son, Michael, to San Bruno where they spent the day waiting on the doorstep of their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Costa.

They later learned that the Costas had at the same time been awaiting the return of the Feldmans at their Valley home! More careful planning took place last weekend which found the Costas beginning 1967 on Aliso Rd. WITH the Feldmans!

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Riddell and son Brian, of Garzas Rd., spent a week at Incline Village at Tahoe, complete with turkey, Christmas tree, and large gathering of friends. They were accompanied by Jeanette and Randi Ayres. Joining them there were former Garzas Rd. residents who now make their home in Marin County, Dr. and Mrs. James Donovan and family; and Mr. and Mrs. Yukio Sumida and son, Roy, of Monterey. "Perfect skiing conditions," reported the Valleyites who were given a bonus five hour snowfall to add the old-fashioned Christmas card picturesque touch to their holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Diner saluted the new year at their home on Middle Canyon Rd. They were accompanied from San Francisco by Mr. and Mrs.

James Diner and Christopher, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Diner, all of whom are associated with Leo Diner films in the Bay Area.

A three-way tie for third place resulted in the evening of bridge enjoyed by the Valley Bridge Club last Tuesday evening at the Community Center. Sharing the third place limelight were Mrs. Trulee Ricketts and Mrs. Sue Stoney; Roger Fonseca and Geoff Cox; David Partridge and Jeff Hudelson. In first place were Mrs. Gertrude Bisnett and Mrs. May Evans, with the second place awarded to Mrs. Mary Angier and Mrs. Mary Drobek.

The magical powers of Kris Kringle were really put to the test this season when for the first Christmas in forty one years, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Verga did not celebrate in their own home, but drove instead to San Francisco to be with their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. James Silliman. Finding no lights at the Verga residence on Wawona Rd., the spirited elf of Christmas transferred their gifts to a fast sled and delivered them in the city where he found the Valleyites enjoying Christmas Eve with Barbara, Jim, and a group of their friends.

Voter registration

New residents and voters who did not participate in the last general election must register by Jan. 12 in order to be eligible to vote in the CUSD override election. Miss Dorothy Caton (659-2355) will be happy to arrange a time and place for anyone who is interested in registering.

Women's Club sees preview of spring fashions

The Carmel Valley Women's Club held their first meeting of 1967 in the Windjammer Room of the Mark Thomas Inn. Mrs. John Power and Mrs. Irwin T. Johnson were co-hostesses for the bridge luncheon attended by forty one members and their guests. Mrs. Howard Vail was in charge of arrangements for the card party.

During the salad luncheon, Marguerite's Fashion Shop at the Inn treated guests to a preview of casual wear for spring. The resort lines featured shades of "daffodil, blush pink, and pale blue" with the showstopper a bold print with earrings to match. Modeling were Navy wives: Mmes. Joseph Tranchini, Joel Crandall, Roger Simon and James Dorsey.

Mrs. Larry Cummings, club president, announced plans for the Feb. 1st meeting have been changed from 12:15 to 12:30 at the Community Center. Mrs. Thomas Hefling and Miss Billie Mans will be in charge of the dessert luncheon. Mrs. Robert Angell, program chairman, announced that the Fort Ord Chorus will play a return engagement. Their selection of numbers from various countries was one of the highlights of last year.

ANNUAL REPORT to our friends and customers - Bless them !

Our sales have quadrupled in four years, and are continuing to expand at a phenomenal rate. Most of our customers come from Monterey, Carmel, Del Monte Forest, as well as Carmel Valley. Some come from Salinas, San Jose, San Francisco, Oakland, Santa Cruz, etc. All of this, in spite of an improbable location, old trading habits, and the complete absence of special Sales. We like to think that people buy from us because of our scintillating personalities, but we know better! Most of our customers are sent here by their friends because they get more for their money—more service, better merchandise, real sincerity, and sound advice. Today, we can offer the best lines in the industry. Such lines as Drexel, Woodland, Heywood-Wakefield, Sealy's Posturepedic, Simmons' Beautyrest, Bigelow, American of Martinsville, Westwood Lamps, Kroehler, and many others. We boast the best carpet department in this area (Bigelow says we are the largest account in this district, including San Jose, for residential sales). Our drapery service is second to none in this area. If you have not been in our store recently, be sure to do so soon. You will be amazed at the fine furniture available; and, if you are a careful shopper, you will soon learn how much more you can get in furniture for every dollar you spend. We invite you to compare our regular everyday prices with those of the numerous Sales available. You will find that you may enter this store any day of the year and purchase regular merchandise at sale prices on any given day.

Cookery

Corner

Featuring the favorite recipes of local cooks.

MRS. FRANK BRESK of Country Club Dr. who is uninvolved this year for the first in many from nursery school work (she was one of the founders of the Valley co-operative), has a little more time for cookery now and treats us to some ideas on how to feed a brood of youngsters and keep guests happy too.

Her onion casserole is a delicious change from potatoes or rice. She also gives us a tip on serving fresh green beans which some Valleyites are still harvesting; as well as a recipe for fruit bread which her five children love for breakfast, or devour, spread with cream cheese, as an after school snack.

MRS. BRESK'S ONION RING CASSEROLE

1 cup onions, sliced	1 teas. salt
6 slices buttered toast, cut in cubes	1 T. butter
1 egg	1/4 lb. grated American cheese
1 cup milk	paprika

Cook onions until tender in a small amount of water. Drain. Line buttered baking dish with toast cubes, then cover with onions. Sprinkle with cheese. Continue with another layer of toast, onions and cheese.

Beat eggs and milk with salt and pour over all. Dot with butter and sprinkle with paprika. Bake in a 375 degree oven for 30 to 35 minutes.

GREEN BEANS AND MUSHROOMS

Cut about 2 lbs. of string beans, French style (the long way). Cook till tender and stir in about a half pound of mushrooms which have been sliced and sauteed in butter.

SOUR MILK DATE-NUT BREAD

2 well-beaten eggs	1/2 teas. salt
2 cups brown sugar	1 teas. baking powder
4 cups flour	2 teas. soda
1/2 cup chopped dates	1 cup chopped walnuts
2 cups sour milk

Make sour milk by putting 6 teas. vinegar into a 2 cup size measuring cup and fill with milk. Let set a few minutes.

Add sugar to beaten eggs. Then add milk and beat well. Add flour sifted with salt, baking powder and soda and stir in nuts and dates. Bake in two medium-sized loaf pans at 350 degrees for about an hour.

Dr. Branson to lecture on rare and unusual Monterey County birds

Rare and unusual birds of Monterey County will be the subject of Dr. Ronald Branson's illustrated talk to the Audubon Society in the music room of Carmel High School Jan. 13. A regular business meeting and social hour will follow.

The next Society field trip will be to Holly Farm. Members and guests will meet at the intersection of San Andreas Rd. and Beach Rd. west of Watsonville at 9 a.m. Saturday, Jan. 14, bringing lunches.

Why your PG&E bill went up when the temperature went down:

Winter's cold and rain means you're spending more time indoors.

You're using more heat and cooking more hot meals.

You need more lighting.

And you enjoy more TV and radio.

So naturally, your PG&E bill went up. When outside temperature goes back up, your bill will go back down again.

Seattle man speaks to Arts Council on fund raising program

As the result of a letter from the Arts Coordinating Council of Monterey County to "persons interested in the support of the arts," some 50 people gathered in the Terrace room of Mark Thomas Inn Monday afternoon to hear Paul S. Friedlander of Seattle explain how his city raises over $140,000 a year in one fell swoop.

Representatives from the 14 organizations (one of which is White Oaks Theatre) were on hand to ask questions of Friedlander to try to determine if something similar would work here.

The Seattle success story is the result of one gala dinner when valuable articles or services are auctioned. These are all donated (tax-deductible) by individuals, manufacturers and organizations.

A charge of $100 a couple is made which includes dinner and $90 worth of scrip to start the bidding.

No decision was made to try the idea out here, but Council Secretary Eleanor J. Melvin indicated that there will probably be a series of informal meetings to explore the idea further.

IT'S LATER THAN WE THOUGHT:
ALMOST TIME FOR THE 'CROSBY' AGAIN!

And the "Crosby" means one of the best times of the year for selling weekenders and part-time homes! Unfortunately, our supply of available properties which fit these requirements is very low right now, particularly in Carmel proper. Does your house have one or two bedrooms? Is it within walking distance of Carmel and the beach? Will it fall into the price range of $25,000 to $45,000? Is your landscaping easy to maintain? Do you want to sell? If so, this may be your last really good opportunity until Easter Vacation. Why don't you give us a ring? No obligation to discuss the idea.
